“ I knew Charlie from his years at Winn-Dixie. I pray for his family that they find comfort in the words of Jesus.

“ Charlie and I only recently became acquainted due to a shared interest in collecting scout patches. I read his article about a fast-acting illness but I failed to understand how fast. I am so sorry for your loss. Ed McDaniel.

“ Charlie, I have known you since I was a kid in Troop 19, and I could not have asked for a better leader or mentor. You have passed so much knowledge on to future men, in order to make the world a better place. Your passing will be felt by many, but your legacies will live on. We love and miss you, old friend.

“ Charlie and I spent many years as brothers and friends. We served together as staff for camp and Order of the Arrow and enjoyed each other's mutual support in our personal endeavors over the miles and years. Charlie was a good leader and a great friend. I valued his opinion and knowledge on many subjects. He was in a group of a few of us guys who kept up with each other since our teenage scouting years. I will miss his sense of humor most of all. He has joined a wonderful group of people I have had the distinct privilege to know, that I am truly jealous of, who have gone to glory before me. May God comfort you all and bless your memories of a wonderful husband, father, brother and friend of who we will think kindly and miss terribly.

“ Charlie will always have a place in my heart. We worked together for many years in Scouting and his genuine love for the boys in Troop 19 was so evident. Also evident in his conversations and actions was his love for his sweet wife and his two children. God has gained another angel.

“ Charlie Price was the first person that I met when we moved in next door to them twenty-four years ago. The movers were working and I had my two girls and baby boy under tow. He met me at the fence and introduced himself and said he was thrilled that our girls were the same age. Then he and Wanda, ( the best neighbor ever) asked if my two girls could come over to get to know each other. I was then able to move my son into his new room without worrying about the girls needs. They came back and ended up being Scouts together and great friends to this day. My biggest memory of this sweet man is all the wonderful smells coming from his grill & wishing I had his skills, I do believe he was the best at the best in cooking outside! To this day I think Charlie put Allen up to asking me, across the fence, if my hamburgers were on fire yes they were.... thank you Allen and Charlie! I absolutely love you sweet friends of ours, forever and always, so hopeful we'll meet up in the big sky above us and get to be neighbors for eternity!
We love you Charlie, enjoy your peace with Jesus
