“ Rita and family so sorry of your lost. Prayers for you and family. I remember attending Saint Elizabeth Anne Seton Catholic Church when the children were small in the 80's. James was a quiet man, but a honorable gentleman. May you find comfort in your loving memories. Peggy Tedford

“ My daddy has always been the kind of man you knew you were safe with, who would always be there at any time for you no matter the reason. He loved me with all of his might, I knew I was always loved no matter what I did! I really don't think he thought I did much wrong, that's how much he loved me. I knew if I called him, he would come to my rescue day or night! I never remember a time he wasn't there for me when I needed him to fix something, to babysit ,or to help with animal rescues! He loved to joke on my mama because he knew I would laugh every time, even though it wasn't too funny to her! I loved how he would joke with my girls and do crazy stuff with them. He was such a good daddy and granddaddy. He knew how to work on anything and fix it. I remember his working hands when he came home from work. They were always a little stained up from his job but always so gentle to the touch. My daddy never liked to tell me no, so growing up, I always knew to ask my daddy first when I wanted to go out , because he would always say yes, and then my poor mama had to be the bad guy and tell me no. I really don't even remember him getting onto me. But if he did, I can imagine it hurt him to do it. I'm blessed that he got to see his grandchildren have babies. He was so proud of all of them. In every picture you can see the love shining in his eyes for my children and their children. I'm so blessed to have had a daddy that loved me as much as he did. I am going to miss him so so very much. It's such an unbearable pain in my heart.

“ My father was a very quiet and humble man. I don't remember many times in my life that he raised his voice higher than normal levels. I'll never forget the one time that I had misbehaved and my Momma sent me to my room to wait on Daddy to come home and deal with me. I remember waiting and bracing for the moment he come in the door. When he did, I eased to my bedroom door to hear the conversation between Momma and Daddy. I had my ear to the door and tears in my eyes anticipating what was to come. I heard him coming I ran to my bed and crawled under it. He came in, and told me to come out. I cried and cried but the only thing he did as far as discipline was pull me to him and hug me she tell me it was OK and he loved me.

All these years I've gone through life messing up, but that man never stopped loving me. For this is the lesson he taught me... Always love your children with no conditions attached.

“ Rita and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I know you and James had a great relationship and y'all both accomplished so much during your lives and especially during your marriage. Where have the years gone, fast and by. We have been blessed. I will be praying for you and your family during this time. Our family has just experienced the same. But, if it had not been such a good life, we would not be missing them so so much. Love you always, Jim Alice Cullars
