

Mr. Anthony Clint Dennis

May 20, 2025

Mr. Anthony Clint Dennis, age 67, a resident of Millbrook, Alabama, passed away peacefully at his home on Tuesday, May 20, 2025. Clint was born on April 29, 1958, to the late James Edward Dennis and Juanita Elizabeth Hulsey. Clint is preceded in death by his parents James Dennis and Juanita Hulsey, brother Bo Dennis, and sister Janice Brooks. He is survived by his sisters Pat Gray (Doug), Dale Cottle, and Kay Bell, sister-in-law Geri Dennis, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other extended family. Clint was an exceptionally gifted, self-taught musician and songwriter who left a lasting mark on Montgomery's music scene. He often reminisced about the unforgettable memories made with The Buckshot Band alongside his lifelong best friends and bandmates Tom Bush and Danny Talley. Throughout his career, Clint played with many talented artists, but one of his proudest moments was sharing the stage with his musical hero, Johnny Rodriguez. In more recent years, Clint shared his talents with his church family at Bethlehem Baptist Church in Marbury. As lasting as the legacy he left through his music, Clint will be remembered even more for the kind of son, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend he was—truly one of a kind, with a witty sense of humor and a heart of gold. He was an avid fan of Seinfeld and loved Christmas movies, and he could quote every line of his all-time favorite movie, It's a Wonderful Life. Clint never missed an opportunity to show his love for his family and was always there for those fortunate enough to call him friend. He brought laughter, love, and a rhythm all his own to everyone lucky enough to know him. In honor of Clint's life and legacy, a celebration will be held at a later date with details to be shared by the family. Brookside Funeral Home, Crematorium & Memorial Gardens of Millbrook, AL directing.

“ I met Clint back in the mid 70's they was the Countrymens band, we would follow Clint and the band where ever they was playing, when he finally teamed up with Tom Bush and Danny Talley The Buckshot band and three piece band that was right up top with any larger band, we all became good friends and will always keep some good memories of the good old days danced a many step to his music. I sent him a birthday card last month to the hospital just to have them forward it back to me I guess that I will keep it as memorandum. I know he has got that old Telecaster with him but playing for a different crowd . Rest Easy my friend. My condolences to his family

I meet Clint several years ago through my husband Billy Myers. Billy played drums with Clint many times. I know Billy is rejoicing with Clint in Heaven. Clint was very talented and such a sweet man. I saw Clint play a few times about a year or so ago, he always played my favorite song by Elvis, "Hurt"! RIP my friend, tell Billy I miss him and will always love him!!!
