“ Sergeant Brown was a great mentor to me while I served. My last memory of him was him teaching me how to lead my team and correctly do the paperwork. He used to joke with me about how I was a damn Yankee and I wouldn't leave the South. I used to mess with him about how ashy he would get when we were in the field. I will miss him no soldier had a better leader or friend. May you have always the love and cherish memories. My prayers and thoughts are with you. Until Valhalla Sergeant Brown.
