

Mrs. Audrey C. Berlin

January 13, 2017

Audrey C. Berlin of Deatsville, AL passed away unexpectedly on January 13, 2017 at a local hospital. Audrey was born in London, England to Percy & Ellen Fowler. She had fond memories of living in England, having met her husband and becoming an Air Force spouse, she would see the world with her family; Audrey's spirit and charm endeared her to so many in her life. Her keen wit and zest for life was influential on her family and at the end of the day, there was nothing more important to her than her family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lyster Berlin, her parents & her sister Enid Ielng. She is survived by her daughter Lea E. Vaughn, two sons, Paul B. McManus & Jeremy A. McManus & seven grandchildren - Alexis L. Vaughn, Nathan McManus, Audie Vaughn, Hannah McManus, Haley McManus, Autumn Osteen & John P. McManus and her sister, Jean Cole of Dosser, England.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday, January 18, 2017 from 12:30 to 1:00 p.m. at Brookside Funeral Home, Millbrook, Alabama with memorial services following at 1:00 p.m. in the funeral home chapel with Chaplain Lance Eiland officiating. Brookside Funeral Home, Millbrook, AL directing.

“ Audrey was a super lady. She was my Aid de Camp when I was National President and attended the Vet Day Parade in Huntsville Al 2010. She and her husband took very good care of us doing my stay . I love to hear her talk her English accent. I had the pleasure of meeting her daughter when we attend the big banquet . I will always have a warm place in my heart for Audrey. She will be missed by everyone who life she touched.
