“ I'm so sorry for the loss of Baranda. I did not know her well, but just knowing her was enough. She was always super nice to me every time I was around and definitely made me laugh to the point of tears. The world is a much lesser place without her in it. Sincere condolences to her children, family, and close friends.

“ Music is my life. Baranda knew that anytime id come around id always catch her playing my songs. She was the biggest fan I had and my dads girlfriend. She stayed uplifting and cheerful and a person like that is hard to find nowadays. She will be truly missed. 100

I remember you and your sisters when y'all were little laughing and running around when me and your grandpa Leroy would come over to work on the car. I often thought about you and your sisters through the years.I wish we could have gotten to know you more. You will be missed and loved
