“ Barbara was my older sister by nine years. She was very kind to me, particularly when I was growing up. She worked hard at many jobs to make ends meet. Once when I was in high school I really wanted a pair of top quality dress shoes which were very expensive. I could not begin to afford them. Barbara purchased the shoes for me and I was shocked but extremely happy. At the time I was making $1 per hour working for minimum wage. The shoes cost $40 at the time which was an outrageous price, particularly for a poor boy like me. It is impossible to express how proud I was of those shoes. I wore them for years. They were the very best. Barbara spoiled me with those shoes. She was generous toward me, my mother (deceased), my sister Elaine (also deceased) and Barbara's son, David. We loved B.J. greatly and miss her terribly. Now she is at peace and without pain. She was a very good person. My wife (Deborah) and I know that God will have a special place in heaven for her.

Respectfully,
