She graduated in 1954 from Walton HS in DeFuniak Springs, FL and fell in love and married James Pinckard (Bill) and became an Army wife for 21 years. She also attended Beauty College in El Paso, Texas in 1963. This began her career as the manager of the Fort Bliss Beauty Shop in 1964-1966. After moving to Huntsville, Alabama, Mrs. Pinckard worked at Marie's Beauty Salon until she opened her own salon in 1968 which she ran until moving to Millbrook in March 1974. After a short break, she began her civil service career at the Commissary at Maxwell AFB. Mrs. Pinckard moved to Civil Engineering where she spent the majority of her career and would retire with 20 years of service. Mrs. Pinckard dedicated the remainder of her life to the Lord and was a long-time member of the Millbrook Baptist Church since 1974. Finally, her family was her greatest joy in life. She was affectionally known by her family and loved ones as "Granie" who all knew and loved her. Being with family and friends, sharing their lives and the Lord with them filled her life with laughter, love, and joy.
