“ A letter to Mom

*You carried so much.
And did it with no complaint
And with silence so no one would know
How you carried so much for so many.*

*You carried hope and love to the hard to love
And to the broken and struggling.
You carried kindness and joy to children
Who needed kindness the most and had it the least.*

*You carried a tune.
With your beautiful alto voice that harmonized with mine,
And with gifted hands that played any keyboard with gentle grace and perfect rhythm.
You carried the song into the hearts of who listened and sang along.*

*You carried me.
My life in you and in your arms,
My fears from under the bed
And in the closet and in my head.
You carried my secrets and kept them safe.
You carried my burdens: not for me but with me.*

*You carried your pain
Of heart ache and heart break,
Of illness and weakness,
Without passing your pain to anyone else.
You carried that burden stoically and independently, until you couldn't carry it alone anymore.*

*I'm so thankful that you trusted me to carry you
Through sickness, loneliness, anger, sadness,
And finally, acceptance.
You carried your faith and confidence in me, and that's the only way*

I believed I could carry you, too.

Carry my love with you and I'll bring more for you when we are together again.

Until then, we will carry on.

“ Colossians 3:12-14

12Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. 13Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. 14And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

“ Jill, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. It is very difficult to lose a parent but always know remember that although your mother may not physically be here anymore the wonderful memories of her can never be taken away. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. May God wrap His loving arms around each of you and give you comfort and peace!

“ I worked with Barbara at the Community Action Opportunities Head Start in Asheville, North Carolina for several years. She and I traveled together to many Head Start trainings and became great friends. I remember Jamie and Jill were in college and she was so proud of you. She loved Claxton Fruit Cakes, but she could not find them near her home. I would send her one each Christmas. I thought she was a wonderful lady.

My Condolences to Jill & Jamie,
