“ Ben and Bobbe were great people. Back on Gladstone getting to the newspaper before Bobbe or just hanging out and chatting with Ben are some of my favorite memories of the 90s. They were always welcoming, kind, and loved unconditionally (even when they were being tough). You could always be yourself around them. I can't imagine growing up without their influence.

My deepest condolences to Erik, Amanda, Jessica, and all the family I never met.

“ Hey Mr. Haynes, or as I called you "Grandpy," as much as I spent time at the house. I always remember seeing you, it was nice enough for me to say a little hello to you. I never got to meet your wife unfortunately, but I know she seemed like a really nice lady. It does hurt to see someone like you go, but I'm sure you're happy with your wife up there. I miss you a lot Grandpy. I wish I had gotten to see and talk with you more. ❤️

“ My parents, my wonderful and sorely missed parents, may you both rest in utmost peace. I will miss you both dearly but I feel peace in knowing you are back together and I know Mama waited for Daddy so they could continue eternity together. I will take the gifts you both have given to me, the sense of humor, compassion, and kindness from my Father and the strength, resiliency, and determination from my Mother. This ensures you both live on always and to my child I will gift the same. You both mattered, your life on Earth mattered and not a day will go by that I don't think of all your sacrifices for your family. Love you forever and always
