

Benjamin Franklin Moncrief

October 18, 2022

Benjamin Moncrief, 75 years old, passed on Tuesday, October 18, 2022 in his resident in Montgomery, Alabama.

Ben was born in Alexander City, AL to Emmit "Sam" and Vestula Moncrief. He was one of six children, three preceded in death: J.W. Moncrief, Robert Moncrief and Juanita Ott.

Ben was married to Norma Moncrief for 45 years and has three children: Benjamin Stacy Moncrief, Andrew Warren Moncrief and Christina Wells. The family lived the majority of their time in Montgomery, AL. He loved to hunt and fish. He was a deacon and member of Beacon of Hope Church of God for many years. He cherished his church family very much. He was very committed to giving back in later years; one example is helping to renovate the current church building when the church moved to Coliseum Blvd.

Benjamin had a heart for helping others in need. He was known for being jovial and making others laugh.

Benjamin leaves to cherish his memory, Norma, 3 children, 6 grandchildren, 4 great grandchildren, two sisters, Betty Ann Workman and MaryAnn Blaire, and a host of other family and friends.
