“ My sweet friend, I will miss our talks, your sweet smile and your upbeat attitude that always made my day. I looked forward to delivering meals to you. Heaven is surely rejoicing to have you join the other Christian saints. Ida

“ How can I even begin to put into words my memories! She was a wonderful example of what a Godly mother-in-law should be. I hope I can be even just a small portion of the type of mother-in-law she was, to my daughter's-in-law. I am very thankful that she raised my husband to come to know the Lord as his Savior, and to value the importance of a relationship with God! I cherish the memories of our times together whether in Alabama, here in Florida, camping trips to the woods, or even church camp in North Carolina. She was honest, straightforward and I loved her very much. I will never eat good ole southern cornbread dressing without thinking of her. She made the best! See you soon Mom!
