“ My condolences go out to the entire Bailey family. I grew up with the Baileys, first meeting them at St. Thomas Catholic Church in Montevallo and then grew up from middle school-college with Clarissa. I spent a lot of time in the Bailey household (and minivan) and remember Brian fondly. He was always so kind and funny. My thoughts and prayers are with you all today.

“ Met Brian at Thompson High School. I was one of his instructors in Air Force Junior ROTC. Brian was a natural team builder, communicator and leader. He really forged a strong bond with several of his classmates and my fellow instructor, Senior Master Sergeant Dee Terrell. I was impressed with Brian's bearing and appearance. Brian was a very bright light amongst his peers. No doubt he was a real blessing to his Army unit. Our prayers are with his wife, family, friends and associates. His illness was a shock owing to his personality, youth and enthusiasm. He will never be forgotten. His memory will spur many of us to be better people. Salute & Rest In Peace. “ Brian had a serious but warm face. I'll never forget I went to Maxwell gym to workout, it was about 4 or 5 in the morning, and who did I see Brian. For whatever reason that serious face greeted me with a smile and I remember we took a selfie to send to Brittany, showing her this is what warriors do in the morning. Brittany you both were a unique couple that had enough love for everyone. Brian will be missed and you both will always be loved. May the Lord continue to comfort your soul 🙏❤️
