“💖 Bridget was always a loving & special daughter in alots of ways. She was always calling & checking on me and would always say I Love You Dad if something happen to you ,they are going to have to put me beside you. That's the kiind of father & daughter relationship we had.... She & I said all the time that if one of us died before the other one ,they would have to buried the other one. 😇 I can't imagining life without her being in it. I'm going to miss "Hey Dad "how are u doing or her saying I love you Dad and tell Debbie I love her. In the last two years she started reading the bible, text me & Debbie verses from the bible and she said I miss my son Jason and she knew God love her and she said one day I wil get to see her baby boy (Jason) which she cried over alots. Which she never got over the passing the away of Jason, it's like a dream and I which somebody would wake me up. I miss my beautiful daughter Bridget. """"""We love and miss her laughter and smile."" Tears 😭 will fall down on our faces a long time, In loving memories. 🌸💌🙏🌹🌹💙💜 Unill we see you again, our angel 😇

“ Bridget was a kind, loving person and she loved to help other people in need. I thought and love her as one of my own children. Even if she wasn't feeling good, she always welcome everybody with her beautiful smile. I love her and she will be deeply miss by everyone. She loved her family and friends. She always make sure to tell me and her dad (John Broadway) that she loved us either by phone or if we went to see her. She love God and she knew God love her. Its going to be hard not seeing her and hearing her gentle words which she. said often I Love You. God took another angel home but too soon. I'm going to to miss her lovely laugh and her beautiful smile. If you knew Bridget you couldn't help but love her. I miss and love my friend and daughter, Bridget. She loved her father so much and we love her. We will see you again one day in heaven sweetie. 💖👼

“ I personally feel so lost without Bridget already, I can't fathom what Dinah and Joe and Johnny are going thru. We all lost a really good person who played a big part in our lives. I'll always remember her kind and loving heart, she always gave more than she took. She had a stubborn streak just like me and we would disagree sometimes just to disagree. We couldn't stay mad at each for long though, we'd end up laughing at each other about just how stubborn we could be. When life got too much for her, she would call me all upset and I would always tell her that I thought she was so much stronger than she gave herself credit for. I admired her so much, I remember when we lost her son Jason, as upset as she was, I watched her comfort my son. That's a caring and loving person, that was Bridget. Bridget, I'll always remember and love you. I'm going to miss you terribly and am counting on you to hold me a place up there! I'm so thankful and proud to call you my friend.
