

Mr. Calvin Kelly Cassady Sr

January 29, 2022

Calvin Kelly Cassady Sr. age 93, a resident of Millbrook Alabama, passed away peacefully at home on January 29, 2022. Mr. Cassady was born in Fort Deposit, Alabama to parents Nannie Elizabeth and William Earle Cassady.

Mr. Cassady was a World War II Navy veteran who loved his country. After marrying Mary Helen Wilkes, a resident of Goshen, Alabama, they moved to Millbrook, Alabama where they raised their four children.

Mr. Cassady retired from the State of Alabama. In his years after retirement, he spent time gardening, hunting and cooking southern comfort foods for anyone that was in his company. He had an immense love for his family. Calvin was known for serving others. For many years he used his culinary talents with Carpenters For Christ, where he helped provide meals for all of the men during the annual mission trips.

Calvin is survived by daughters, Kaye (Jimmy) Julian; Mona (Myles) Smith;

Missy (Jeff) Helms; son, Buddy (Terrie) Cassady; sister, Nanita (Alvin) Cates; eight grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Myles Smith, Kendall Smith, Clint Smith, Cecil Smith, Alden Barentine and Dalton Mason. Honorary pallbearer Alfonza Greer.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 50 years, Helen "Hela" W Cassady; mother, Nannie E Cassady; father, William E Cassady; brother, William "Bill" Cassady.

The family will receive friends at Brookside Memorial on Friday, February 4, 2022 at 10:00 am.

Service and graveside will follow at 11:00 am.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly ask that contributions be made to “ Mr. Calvin was the first person to welcome us to Coosada Baptist and if we missed a Sunday he would lightly scold us and tell us the importance of being steadfast in our faith. He was such an inspiration as we watched him talk to all the young children and give them dollars to put in the offering plate so they would learn it was important. We will miss him.
