“ From early childhood I played with Charlotte and Nell. It was always fun to go to their house, across the field, and play. We made clothes out of leaves pinned together with pine needles and wondered if rabbits really smoked the rabbit tobacco that grew in the fields (might have smoked some (ha, ha). Will miss her laugh.

Charlotte was the only hairdresser my mother had (until she retired). She was always ready with a smile and laughter . She loved to dance and could “cut a rug”. How much I will miss her! Prayers for Damion and all the family 🙏💕
