Her sparkle and shine would light up any room she entered. Her love for people, life and all of God's creation was canyon deep and river wide. Her heart overflowed with love and compassion for everyone she knew. Her sense of humor was captivating and contagious. She was always quick with a joke or a humorous tongue-in-cheek remark. Any time you were around Chass all your troubles just seemed to melt away. She was a free spirit who lived life on her own terms. She had the sweetest spirit, and she gave the very best heart-felt hugs.
