“ I had the opportunity to share many memories (over 20 years) with Clarence since we were both on the Millbrook Juvenile Conference Committee. His kindness to the juveniles that came before the panel was overwhelming. He cared deeply about their commitment to completing the program and making a positive difference in their live and the community. His loss will be felt.

To Maxine and Family, my name is Ann Howard, a friend of Angela James; I know she was very close to you and your husband and was always concerned about you both during his illness, I pray that God give you and your family peace and continue to cover you under the Blood of Jesus. My prayers are with you and your family 🙏

“ My sincerest condolences to Ms. Maxine and family. Mr. Clarence was full of life and told the best stories. We attended a Baptist Convention in Kentucky, we had the best time with Mr. Clarence. Church events were fun with him there. He just had that "fun loving presence." Rest in Heaven sir, you will be missed.
