“ What I remember most about Craig is that he always made me laugh. I wish I could remember the things he said. I once heard someone say, " You may not remember what a person said, but you will remember how they made you feel". I find that that is true. Rest in peace nephew. Love to the family.

My fat boy was a beer and whisky drinking, half seeing, roll tide, four wheeling family and friend, and loving man. I will never forget the great times that we shared. Will his sweet voice say I love my lulu? I'll see you later buddy.
