“ I met Danny when I came back to Gunter in 1994. We worked on a project together, what a smart guy he was. He followed me to Regions Bank, where we worked together on some projects. Most importantly, I remember the God conversations; it was his heart. I know where he is; look forward to seeing him again in the our heavenly reunion.

“ Dan and I became good friends when we met at a prayer gathering years ago with Carmen Falcione. We ate together and talked about our families and shared many laughs. While he was battling many health issues, Dan often contacted me for prayer and just a friendly chat. I can truly say, Dan was a friend indeed. It's been a while since I heard from him. Today, I saw on Facebook that he is gone to be with the Lord. My condolences to the family.

“ It was with a heavy and sad heart as I read Dan's obituary. I have so many memories of when the boys came and stayed with us growing up when if uncle Sonny was stationed overseas, they're way too many to tell on this page. The one that thing at brightens me is the fact that the family is together once again.

I will cherish all our childhood memories of our get togethers at Grandma Randolph’s house as well as our big family trip to see you all and going to Six Flags over Dallas.
