Dear Bob: I knew of your son David helping you on Magnesium Monthly Reviews for several years. It is good that he did not have to continue to suffer with incurable pain. May his soul rest in peace. Neale R Neelameggham

“ I met David sometime in the spring of 1978. We were college freshmen and a long way from home. David has been a steadfast friend and a good man to bounce ideas off of; his quick wit and almost encyclopedic knowledge always made conversation a pleasure. The Brown family adopted quite a number of us from the university and had us over for the Super bowl; final four; and sometimes just cookies, popcorn, and a movie. His approach to college sports is summed up as follows: Roll Tide! David had a good outside jump shot in basketball and a nice approach to the net in tennis. Trips to the Southern Conference tournament in Asheville with Jimmy and David were quite a treat; the running commentary from both of them was well worth the trip. He was a fine Christian man and Sylvia and I already miss him very much.

“ To David’s parents, sister, brother, added sister, nephews. Life is precious. Our sincere condolences and thoughts are with you.

Remember David every day. He will never be forgotten.

I will miss seeing his Facebook comments on Mark and Lynn’s posts. It just showed love between them.
