“ We met David about 25 years ago. When i had my daughters he became Unlce David to them . He enjoyed watching them grow up he had his own special nick names for them which has stuck til this day. He was so proud when my oldest Taylor graduated in 2019 and was looking forward to seeing my youngest Hayley graduate this May, unfortunately he wasnt able to make it due to being in the hospital but he sent word he wanted to be.I will always think of him when I see a Little Debbie cake! We love you and will miss you. go fly high Uncle David!

Love ya

“ David and I met when I was 19 years old and working at Pizza Hut with my sister Ann and Tommy Curry. We all developed a very close relationship and he became part of our family. Words cannot describe the heart of this man or the funny way he handled every day life not to mention my nieces...you and your personalities with be dearly missed by us for sure. We love you.
