“ My friend Debbie. I enjoyed working with you at Ezells catfish house. I treasure memories of cooking out and playing monopoly. Grateful you gave your heart to the Lord.

“ Debbie my beautiful precious friend, I still wake up in the morning and for a brief few seconds I still think you are here with us but reality sinks in and I realize you are gone now. I wish people knew the real heart of you after you gave your life to God, you became a new creature and you never wanted for others to know your good works towards others, you just quietly did them. You were a true believer and if I can keep the faith as you did I will see you in Heaven and we will walk it together. I will miss you Sister of My Heart
