“ God bless you Miss Jessie. My prayers and sympathy go out to Mr. Willie, Kevin, Scott and the grands. Many fond memories supporting Scott, Charles and I as a safe place full of hospitality and many laughs while we toiled around figuring out high school, first jobs and college. Will always remember late nights, gaming, exploring hobbies in the garage and just a warm welcoming place we could hang out judgement free. God speed and best regards -AaronG

“ God bless your family Miss Jessie. Willie and Kevin are in my prayers. Many years memories hanging out the house with Scott and Charles toiling away gaming or tinkering in the garage. Yall were loving and supporting of us as we found our way through high school, jobs and some college growing pains. Your hospitality and laughter will be missed. God bless yall.

“ Jessie, you were a wonderful friend and my honorary sister. Remember when Melissa jumped off your diving board, yes she wasn't 2 yet, and you had to holler, "Kathy turn around." You laughed and said, "She has to do what her brothers do." Rest in Peace. You were loved and will be missed.

Aunt Jesse my most favorable memory is living in South Dakota and you coming in from California. I think it was and you fixed my hair for my softball game. I always win long hair and it was just barely long enough to pit in a ponytail. But you did it made me the happiest little girl alive. I will always remember you and Jesse. I hope you're dancing in the skies with mom. I love y'all
