“ Cindy and I had known Earl since he and his family arrived at VBC. Though we’ve been away (China) these past thirty years, Earl remained the same. He was faithful to love God, his family and his church which is rare quality among Christian families. His involvement in every aspect of the church will never be forgotten and stands as a tribute to his love for God, family and church.

His Smile was completely contagious. When you were around him you couldn’t help but smile along with him. His family and friends will mourn his departure but we glory in the truth that he’s walking the streets of glory. I can even picture his smiling face as he walked through the gates of glory. He might even be asking where is my plumb line? Those gates need to be checked since they’ve been there forever - 😊
