

Mrs. Eunice Lee Hughes Stubblefield

January 18, 2026

Mrs. Eunice Lee Hughes Stubblefield age 91 passed away Sunday, January 18, 2026. A Celebration of Life service will be held on Wednesday, February 11, 2026, at 11:00 a.m. at St. Michael and All Angels' Episcopal Church 5941 Main Street Millbrook, Alabama 36054. She is preceded in death by her parents Gordon and Mary Elizabeth Hughes, husband James Earl Stubblefield, son Scott Stubblefield, sisters Jewel Macon, Helen Heinz, and Anette Tucker. Eunice was born May 8, 1934, in Birmingham, Alabama. She attended a Catholic Elementary School and went on to attend Westend High School. She ran a successful Real Estate business in Millbrook, Alabama for many years. Eunice was an accomplished pianist. She played by ear, and although she couldn't read music if she heard it, she could play it. She composed the Stanhope Elmore High School Alma Mater. She was also a published author of a children's book "In the Desert One Christmas Eve". She was instrumental in broadening cultural horizons by helping to bring the "Thames" to Millbrook for which they are so well known. She is survived by her daughters, Deborah Smith (Mac), and Andrea Boll (Jim), son Steve Stubblefield (Beth), and a host of grandchildren. In lieu of flowers please make donations to St. Judes, Special Olympics, St. Michael and All Angels' Episcopal Church, or a charity of your choice in her memory. Brookside Funeral Home, Crematorium & Memorial Gardens of Millbrook, AL directing.

“ Eunice, BJ Barkhurst and myself were partners in Century 21 Golden Key Real Estate. We built the building Mike Mikell. He had the pharmacy on one side and we had the other. Great memories of our spouses and the three of us working and playing together. Eunice was so talented. We loved to have her play the piano. I still treasure the children's book she wrote, "In The Desert One Christmas Eve" She will be missed by many.
