

Eva Ruth Berdeaux

August 8, 2021

MILLBROOK, ALABAMA – Eva Ruth Umbarger Berdeaux, age 86, passed away Sunday, August 8, 2021, at Charlton Place, Deatsville, Alabama. Prior to the recent move to Charlton Place, Ruth spent many contented years at GreenSprings Assisted Living, Prattville, AL. The family is grateful to the GreenSprings family for their dedication and care.

Ruth Berdeaux was born and raised in Johnson City, Tennessee. As soon as she was old enough, she left home to join the Air Force with the first assignment being Maxwell Air Force Base. After three years of active duty service she left the Air Force to be married and start a family, which she raised in North Carolina. Ruth went to work for Piedmont Airlines in Winston-Salem, NC, eventually retiring from the reservations division of USAir. After retirement, Ruth moved back to Tennessee to be closer to her brother and family. In retirement, however, the inner gypsy took over and Ruth began moving to be closer to her children. She found herself living in San Antonio, briefly, back in Montgomery, then Rapid City, South Dakota, and Tucson, Arizona before landing back in the Montgomery area near family. As she moved about, Ruth took on an orange tabby cat, “Gracie,” for constant companionship.

In addition to her parents, Loyd and Edna Umbarger, Ruth was preceded in death by her brothers Edward, Hobart, Bill and Ray.

Survivors include daughter Dawn (Jerry) Daniel of Millbrook, AL; son David (Sandy) Berdeaux of Tucson, AZ; and grandchildren and nieces.

The family will conduct a private burial at a later time at the Alabama National Cemetery, Montevallo. Brookside Funeral Home, Crematorium & Memorial Gardens of Millbrook, AL directing.
