“ You showed me love. I think about you almost every day. It truly bothers me that you are gone. You opened your door to me and my child, made us feel welcome. I feel incomplete that I couldn't say goodbye Dear Friend. I love you...

“ Peewee, even though I never met you, but hearing how my Aunt talked about you, let me know that you were a very special person. The way you would ask about Braxton, made me smile. Rest well and you will definitely be missed. Sending condolences to the family.

“ Man it’s nothing I can say bad about you from childhood to adulthood. Not seeing you twice a week for a hair cut will be crazy. As my husband called you Mr. Tank top gang, you the only man I know wore one day in day out. Nothing but love Peedy boy.

“ You were one of a kind. I appreciate the paths and conversations we had. You always kept a smile and when I needed you all I had to do was get the message to you. Rest well and continue to look after us. Tell my family hello and some of you are rejoicing now. You will be missed, but I’m thankful for the memories

“ My A1 since day 1 so many memories with you I will never forget. I remember stealing my sister's car, just learning to drive, and you'd be right there with me every time. We were baptized together, we did it all growing up, even as adults when I needed you, you said, "cuz I'm coming. Give me 20 minutes." It would be 2 hours, but you came. My Hippie, T.I, Peedy, V you will forever be in my heart cuz. Love you forever ❤️❤️❤️
