“ You are the Mother I received when I met your son. You raised a true and honest man with a compassionate heart and soul. I am truly forever grateful to have been your daughter and even more grateful that you gave me Kenneth. You were a precious woman and now you will be a precious memory. I love you, Emma.

“ Mom, thank you for the Godly example you were to me. You did the very best you could in raising me and teaching me God's ways. Because of your example and your prayers I have a relationship with Jesus. Thank you and how I long to see you again in perfect health and meet our savior. Love you!

“Faye is one of my most treasured friends. She was attending the Keller Church of God when my family moved to Texas in March of 1978. She was the kind of friend you might not talk to or see for long periods of time and take up right where you left off. I've got more to go to heaven for now. I know she isn't in pain anymore and she remembers every thing now. God bless everyone of her family and all of her other friends. Thank you Faye for a life well lived as a gracious sweet lady. You are in my heart to stay.”
