

Mr. Fitzgerald Graves

September 18, 2022

Fitzgerald Graves youngest son of Eddie Graves, Sr. and Annie Lee Graves born February 11, 1964, in Chicago, IL. Graduated from Percy L Julian High School class of 1983. A son which loves, cherish, and received Christ at an early age. On September 18, 2022, he received his wings. Fitzgerald received the nickname "Goat" from his niece and nephews also, known as Big Papa in Alabama. He retired from Southwest Airlines with 22 years of service. If one word can describe Fitzgerald, it would be courage. Fitzgerald would always say everything is ok. He would always say a joke to make laughter from a negative situation. A man that loved dominos, bowling, and music. Yes, there was no down day for him. If you ever need a clean detail car, called Fitzgerald. Yes, no matter where or when you may have seen him, Fitzgerald's car was polished. Fitzgerald always showed love to everyone who may have come across his path. There was no stranger to him. ROLL TIDE!!!! Another one of God's children had to rest from this earth. He leaves behind one son Christian D. Johnson, brother Eddie Graves, Jr., sisters Lavern Graves, Addie Graves, Brenda Dyson, brother-in-law Richard Dyson, nephews Carlton Hall, Eddie Graves III, and Ray Harrison II. Nieces Mary Anthony, Breona Gamble, Reavan Dyson, and Amira Moten. Previous wife Zandra Norris.
