Too Heavy

"O Lord, it's so hard for us to do:

To turn from self and look to You.

So steeped we are with daily care,

How often we forget You are there.

To bear the burdens that weigh us down,

Lift up our heads when we could drown.

Help us, Lord to share the load

We cannot carry down this road."

“ Words cannot express the love and closeness our family shared because Uncle Charlie has always been thoughtful, helpful and generous. He visited home as often as he could. He loved his family. We will hold on to precious memories. Gone too soon and finally at peace, we will miss this man! He taught me to focus on important things in life. He showed strength when challenged. I am a better person because of him.
