God's Promise:

We have died in baptism and have the promise that if we remain faithful and trust in the Lord, there is nothing for us to fear either. Jesus paid the price for each one of us and said that he does not intend to lose any that have been entrusted to him. Let us trust in the goodness of God and in the promise made to us by Jesus. Death has been conquered forever and today is a day to rejoice.

Rejoice in the Lord for He is our strong tower, our comforter, our peace and strength.

Love you much family. 🙌💕

“ I met George in a recovery meeting when I was at a very low point in my journey. He realized pretty quickly that I would hide from the world when I was relapsing and he refused to let it go on for long. He would call and leave encouraging messages when I wouldn't answer and if that failed I'd start getting text messages making sure I knew I wasn't alone.

George shared his positive attitude with a lot of people in our group and when he received his cancer diagnosis he faced it with that same attitude, ready to do what he could to fight it but always keeping his strong faith in God to accept what might come his way. I will carry his wit, his humor and his steadfast support of others with me for a very long time to come.

I'm very sorry for your loss but I'm very glad that George Stewart was a part of my life.
