“ True friends are diamonds - a beautiful, valuable treasure. Jeri Yow was that kind of friend, and these are some of my memories about her:

Way back in 1997 she volunteered to make red circle skirts for 20 girls in the Christmas program I was directing at Autauga Academy. She was a talented seamstress and she was generous in sharing her gifts. She had beautiful hands and she enjoyed keeping her nails perfectly manicured. She loved her three handsome sons, and she was so very proud of them. She adored her grandchildren and wanted to spend more time with them. She welcomed my son Haz to visit at her home when he was having problems with his stepfather. Years later, she and Blake grieved with me when Haz left this earth too soon. I am thankful for the fun times Jeri and I had going to lunch, or church, or to community theater shows with friends. I know Jeri will still be my friend when I graduate from this world, and we will meet again in Heaven. May God bless you Jeri, and each member of your wonderful family.

Love,

What made us friends in the long ago
When we first met? Well, I think I know,
The best in me and the best in you
Hailed each other because they knew
That always and ever since time began
Our being friends was part of God's plan.
