“ Even though it has been many years since we spent time together at Alliance Bible Church, we still remember that big smile that Greg shared every time we saw him. Though his departure leaves a void, we will experience those smiles again someday in eternity. Love and hugs to you, Lynn.

“ I remember how much it meant to Greg during Covid to find a Welcome sign when he and Lynn brought their RV to stay at our place for some weeks. I was just thinking how much more so for him now, the resounding welcome into Heaven will have superseded all earthly welcomes. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend tomorrow as I am out of state. May He comfort you.

“ One cool memory I have takes me back to AWANA nights where Mr Greg would lead game time for the kids (myself being one of said kids). Years later I grew up and helped him lead game time for other young kids forgetting that things had come full circle. He was good at bringing joy in others lives, stepping in to fill a need not yet met, and he cherished life and friendships like no one else I know. I can't imagine a day he didn't bring a smile to mine or someone else's face. I know it hurt him most of all leaving that behind and the thought of hurting anyone he ever cared for. He would throw a joke or a distraction just to see happiness back in the eyes of those he loves- so I try to remember that at we face this day. I try to think of the happiness, his humor, the lessons he instilled in me and remember I'll see him again. Praying for all!

“ Greg and Lynn were an integral part of the Alliance Bible Church in North Little Rock, Arkansas for a number of years. This is where we got to know Greg and Lynn and their family. It was with great sadness that Linda and I learned of his going home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Greg was the salt of the earth, a gentle spirit, whose laughter was contagious, his sense of humor made everyone feel good in his presence. I will miss our occasional phone calls. His separation is only temporary, he has simply relocated, and is now safe in the arms of his Lord. Lynn, we pray that God's grace will be sufficient and sustain you and your family during this difficult time. Greg, my friend, I will see you again soon.

“ Getting to meet Greg and Lynn last summer and deliver the Fanning family Bible that belonged to our mutual Great great grandparents, is a memory I will never forget. What an extraordinary follower of Jesus! My sister Julie and I will always remember the kindness of this cousin and his family. Until we meet again at the great banquet table in the presence of the Savior. Candace Horch and Julie Gamewell

I also met our cousin last year when we delivered the Fanning Bible. I am so saddened to learn of our loss. Yet I know that He is with the Lord. May the Jesus comfort you, Lynn, and your family.
