I come back to visit you Greg, just like I did when I lived in Florida, used to come to the court house and invade your office for a 15 minute visit. Still miss you, and will forever. We were friends from the age of 14, I was 14 you were 13..

Forever Friends, see you in heaven. Donna Burnett Jones

“ I knew Greg from 7th grade, moved to Florida, but each time I came to visit family. I went by courthouse to visit him we remained friends for 50 yrs. One of our last conversations was probably a year or so, I recall it went from his bird watching. To his brother Keith being a preacher, he was bragging on Keith, then to Brent, and how smart he was, then he hit on the subject of God, he didn't understand when he was told that God was a jealous God. I explained to him. He wants all of your heart, love Him first...we had a pretty in-depth conversation.

About God that day. I knew by Gregs remarks, his mother had a conversation with Greg. I knew, Greg believed, he was just asking questions about what he didn't quite understand. I found Greg to be very intelligent man but seemed lonely. He told me he had 2 dogs, that was his family, his company. Greg had grown into a loner. I didn't see Greg for about a year...but he crossed my mind often. I will miss Greg forever; I pray his brothers find peace in knowing he is in the presence of God. Greg will be missed by all who loved him. I will hold a special place in my heart for Greg forever.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with his family. My memory of him at Stanhope was limited, but I did know him as very intelligent, energetic, and outgoing. We reconnected at our 40th class reunion and hung out together with friends until early morning hours. We shared a most memorable time together. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Wow.....so much I could say. When I think of Greg, I just see him grinning. There was a carload of us he would pick up every morning & take us to school usually laughing all the way & remained friends since. So generous in everything. I pray that God will guide Marty, Keith, Brent & Ronnie through their grief & soothe their pain. I will be thinking of you all.

“ Father, we ask You to send Your peace to Ronnie, his brothers and the family and friends who are mourning the passing of Greg. Continue to surround them with a closeness of family, friends and loved ones who will offer words of comfort. Give them sweet and restful sleep. Father, remove the spirit of heaviness, and give them garments of praise.

In due time, bless their lives to overflow with laughter and joy again. As they take refuge in You, please help them to put their trust in You. Holy Spirit, we ask that You settle the hearts and minds of those who are feeling any guilt, resentment, bitterness, or anger. Help them not to look back but to press forward. May they sense Your presence in this hour of need. In Jesus' name, Amen.

*Sending our love and prayers,
Bob and Michelle*
