“ Jim is a very close friend to Teri and I. He was like a Brother part of our family. During football season Jim would meet us for Lunch on most Saturdays to watch our favorite teams play (Notre Dame Fighting Irish, Texas A&M Aggies and thanks to his granddaughter the Florida Gators, either at Baumhower's Grille, or Players Sports Pub (of course during these viewings we had to put up with the Auburn-Alabama fans). The trip to Birmingham to see the "Eagles Concert" (we have to thank Jimmy for the tickets) with Jim was most enjoyable. I will always cherish the friendship and times I spent with Jim. REST IN PEASE JIM! GOD BLESS!

Jim was an awesome work friend at DISA Montgomery. We hosted the coffee fund in building 205. We often walked the Gunter bowl loop during lunch breaks or after work. Jim provided great advice and encouragement. Jim is now in heaven with our savior Jesus Christ.

“ I've had the pleasure of know Jim over 50 years. We met when we both Stationed at Upper Heyford AFB in Oxfordshire England. We had a lot in common love of music love of beer and more importantly we were both from The Bronx. I was there when Jimmy was born and myself Lsrry Tehn and Tony Martinez became unofficial Godfathers to him. I spoke with Moonman as I called him every once in awhile. It was just this past spring when I said we should FaceTime but he told he was too cheap to buy a Apple phone and that he gad a old android one. I'll miss him but I'm sure I'll run into him bragging about Notre Dame Football and how he can't get a decent slice of pizza
RIP MOONMAN
