“ I can't believe that my sweet cousin Jim isn't just a phone call away. I will miss hearing his voice. He was the sweetest and kindest of us all, I think. I am sad that his last years were such a struggle, but I have always been amazed at his strength of character and determination that he would beat it, and at least be able to take care of himself again. I smile when I think of childhood memories and family times together, even though infrequent, due to military miles of separation. I am also smiling at the thoughts of Jim, laughing & walking & dancing through the streets of Heaven. Much love & prayers for comfort & peace for Teresa, Ken, Colin, & Fran.
