“ Jimi was my childhood/young adult best friend. He believed in me when others didn't. Proofread my college papers, help me study for tests, the list is endless, but the very most important things he taught me were how to find my spine, how to stand up for myself, and to believe in myself. We've lost touch over the years, as so many of us do, but I wouldn't be the strong woman I am today, if it hadn't been for him and it's something I will forever be grateful for! I am soooo terribly sorry to his family. There are no words to convey the sorrow. To his wife & children, I hope you all know that you are all he ever wanted in this entire world.
