“ Our lives have been blessed to have been friends with this fine man and his sweet wife. While Jim lived in Tennessee, he was a great friend and we enjoyed many good times at the shop and race track. He spend hours with my dad at the end of the day. I'm sure their talks were full of the Good Word and the good ol' days. He was a big help to me in many ways at the time my father passed. We enjoyed seeing them come to visit every time they visited Tennessee. I know they touched many lives like they did ours. We will miss him and pray for strength for the family for the time ahead. We send our deepest sympathy and love.

“ My last memory of my dear brother "Jimmy" was at Baptist South just before he was taken to UAB, where he eventually passed. He was in good spirits, talking up a storm, and related to me the story of meeting his wife and partner, Ramona--it was love at first sight! He showed no signs of fear that he was about to meet his Maker--just the opposite. He had prepared himself well, most of his adult life, for the moment. I had heard him say on a previous visit that he was ready to go when called, without regrets. We should all be so fortunate to have had such a life as his was. We will all miss him...
