

Infant James Payton "JP" Jordan

April 25, 2024

James Payton "JP" Jordan was born on December 31, 2023, and passed away peacefully in the arms of his loving daddy on Thursday, April 25, 2024 at Children's Hospital of Alabama. We are so proud of JP, a warrior, who fought through the adversities he faced from a complicated birth. He is now in the presence of His Lord and Savior and in the arms of his loving mother. Luke 18:15-16. JP is the beloved son of Nathan and the late Haley Jordan of Prattville, AL. He was the answer to their prayers, and they waited for his birth with joyful expectations. During his short 116 days on earth, he enjoyed his TV fish aquarium, being sang to, read to, held close and rocked by his daddy and grandparents. God bless all who prayed, gave, and received strength through our difficult times. We all learned to meditate on Joshua 1:9 and Just Pray. He was loved by everyone who met him, including his NICU doctors and nurses at Baptist East and Children's, who cared for him with such compassion. JP was preceded in death by his caring mother, Haley Jordan, great grandparents James Jordan, Bill and Wanda Carper and Payton Skipworth. JP is survived by his loving and dedicated Daddy, Nathan Jordan. Maternal Grandmother Cindy "Honey" Skipworth, Maternal Grandfather Tony "PapPaw" (Karen "Sassy") Skipworth, paternal Grandparents Rev. Tom "GT" (Dawn "Granna") Jordan, Great Grandparents Johnny (Carolyn) Rayborn, Beverly Skipworth, Janie Jordan, and Tim (Carol) Smith. L I L

“ My sweet grandson, my little buddy. You fought so bravely and valiantly to the end. So proud of you my little warrior. I love you so much and thankful I got to spend 4 months with you. Thankful for every little memory. God had other plans for you and your momma. I love you both so very much and will see you again one day. Until then, you both will always have a piece of my heart. You both will never be forgotten, but missed everyday as we try to navigate life without you.

“ I didn't hold J. P. as a baby, but I hold him in my heart and I will be seeing him in Heaven, sooner than most of his family because of my age. I will certainly let him and his Mama know what a caring Father on earth he had and Grandparents and Great grandparents, and Aunts and Uncles and cousins. Janie Jordan, Great Grandma.
