

Mr. James Christopher Lyons

November 13, 2017

James Christopher Lyons, aged 69, died peacefully in his home Monday, November 13th.

James, called Jim by his family and friends, was preceded in death by his parents Owen and Ardelle Lyons his brother Mike Lyons his son Chris Lyons, and his nephews Julian R. (Trey) Brown, III and Nathan Lyons.

He lives on in the memories and hearts of his wife Pat, his brothers and sisters Steve Lyons and his wife Karen, Sally Stiles and her husband Brad, Susan Isermann and her husband Dave, Dan Lyons and his wife Teri, Kenny Lyons and his wife Lilann, and Marty Lyons and his wife Judy, his sister-in-law Lyn Nicolo, and his sons Owen and his wife Laura, Patrick and his wife Erica, and Andrew and his wife Hannah. He is also survived by his grandchildren Evelyn, Aurelia and Oliver, his many nieces and nephews, and his many friends including Dennis Klein and Wayne Flowers.

Jim loved so much in life - his family, his friends, golf, trips to Washington, the Gulf Coast, and North Carolina, Auburn football - that it is hard to list everything. He lived a full life, serving his country as a helicopter pilot in Vietnam, coaching many soccer teams over the years, working tirelessly in the support of his family, and enjoying his retirement with friends, family and his hobbies.

We would like to thank Nelda Clark, Deb Folmer, Drs. Arshad and Varghese, for their wonderful care of Jim and their kindness and patience with us over the years.

The funeral service will be Friday, November 17th at 11:00 am at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Prattville. Visitation will be 1 hour prior to the service, between 10:00 and 11:00 am, also at St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

Pallbearers will be his sons Owen, Patrick, and Andrew, and his nephews Jay Robertson, John Robertson, and William Robertson. Burial will follow at Brookside Memorial Gardens, 3360 Brookside Dr. Millbrook, AL 36054.
