“ Jim was the boy next door. My first date. A great friend to my brother, Larry. I talked with him not too long ago. It's sad to know he's passed. I'm sure there were a lot of folks lined up to greet him in Heaven. My brother, Larry for sure. My condolences to the family. I will keep you in my prayers.

“ Jessie & I were very sorry to hear about the loss of Jim. W haven't seen him in a few years but he is the type of person that you don't forget. We know how much he loved his family and how dedicated he was to them. Also enjoyed listening to him speak of his time with the State Troopers. He was very proud of that job. He was always so proud of Laurel and Josh. Our blessings, thoughts and Prays you with Anita, Amanda and your entire family. May God give each of you comfort during this difficult time.
