“ Too many people he was known as Mr. Shaw or James but to me he was known lovingly as Paw Paw. I have a heart full of memories of a loving and proud grandfather from the time he put together my first swing set until the night he passed. He was always at every ball game, recital, Birthday party, graduation, holiday, and my two proudest moments, the day I was married and the day his great grand child was born. No matter how significant the moment, he was always there beaming with pride to support us. He truly loved his family!

Dear Mallory, My name is Jackie, I am sorry that we have never met? I am Webb Shaws daughter. Are you Randys daughter? I mean...Wow, That is unbelievable, your young, you'll see, one day youll wake up & think where has all the time gone? Lol- I just found out about the passing of Uncle James, & wanted to send my condolences, please, give my condolences to Randy, Debbie, & Aunt Jean, I am very sorry for your all's loss. You are a very beautiful young woman, & I know Uncle James was proud of you. He was always a friendly loving man.
Love, Jackie
