

Mrs. Janna Moore Kirk

May 3, 2023

Kirk, Janna Moore, 82, passed away in Prattville, Alabama on May 3, 2023, after a lengthy struggle with Parkinson's Disease. She was born November 30, 1940, in Georgiana, Alabama. Janna was a strong Southern woman with a cunning wit and sense of humor. She spent her years as a homemaker and her proudest accomplishment was the two children she reared. Janna was a devoted follower of country music and was an avid fan of the Grand Ole Opry and rarely missed a Saturday night telecast; she favored traditional country music, but occasionally would get behind one of the newer country artists and would quickly tell you why they garnered her favor. Janna took great pride in following both the Alabama Crimson Tide and the Auburn Tigers; mainly because her daughter adored the University of Alabama, while her son pulled for and was a graduate of Auburn University.

Mrs. Kirk is survived by her son, Todd Kirk (Jonathan Bowman); daughter, Catherine (Phillip) McNider; grandson, Trey McNider; sister, Catherine Hendrix; special nephew, Bruce (Lynn) Tolerson and their three sons, Brett, Brady and Brooks Tolerson, and many other family members.

Janna was preceded in death by former spouse and the father of her children, Sam Kirk; her parents, William Greal and Velma Larkins Moore; sister, Ruth Tolerson; and infant brother, Bill Joe Moore.

A private memorial service will be held in Nashville, Tennessee at a future date. The family would like to extend a special thanks to the staff of Prattville Health and Rehabilitation, where she enjoyed a special home, and who helped ensure Janna's final weeks were filled with dignity, love, and care.

As an expression of sympathy, please consider a donation to the Little Star Chihuahua Rescue, or to your local humane shelter.
