“ Rest in Peace Cousin Jean - though we haven't seen each other in way too many years, I am reminded of those very early times when we all lived in Millbrook and your Dad, my Uncle George, riding us around on the tractor and your Mom's, my Aunt Susie, love of birds and animals, us running through the cotton fields, the creeks and generally a carefree country life before we had to move. As we all went separate ways, I'm thankful for that great beginning. Thoughts and prayers are with your family and friends. Thankful we had you!

“ We are so saddened by Jeans death.

We have been neighbors for 26 years and she was the best neighbor and friend.

She would always take the time to talk with me, even when I talked her ears off.

She will be missed.

We love you Jean.
