“ I extend to the Brown family my sincere sympathy and prayers in the loss of Deacon Joe. He was a very nice man, and he grew up in our Sandtown neighborhood. I remember his parents well and his other family members. His late wife, Shirley, was also a very sweet lady. She has been missed and now he too will be greatly missed. My Mother was very fond of him, his wife, and their family. He did his Practice Teaching in her classroom, and she always had positive things to say about him. My prayer is that God will strengthen all of you in this time of sorrow. May God bless you all. Love to each of you.

“ *To the Brown Family,
Mr. Brown will be very missed by all of the hearts that he touched in Brookview Circle. Not a day goes by that he' wasn't sitting on the side waving at every car that came down the hill. Now I know he is at rest, but his spirit lives on with all of us. I will miss stopping by and talking to him about what's next in the garden. But he's working in God's garden now. Rest on Mr. Brown*
