“ John F. Durden was my grandfather that raised me as a young boy till I was a young man. Him and my grandmother Pat Durden showed me the path in life. Him and my grandmother showed me what being a man and growing up is really about. What they really instilled in me was morals, values, and most of all how to love unconditionally. My grandpa was my role model, my one I could trust no matter what, my one true hero! I will try to be half the man you was. You played a really valuable role in my life. Our bond was Strong, Authentic, and most of all Genuine. You will forever be my guardian angel 🙏
