“ May God give strength and solace to the Graham Family during this time. Although I didn't know Pastor Graham, I know Dennis through his marriage to my niece Jessica. If his father was anything like Dennis, I know he was a God-fearing warrior for Christ, a good father, spouse, sibling, uncle, friend, grandparent and so on. May the Lord watch over His “Angel” as he begin to work for the Lord in heaven. God's sacred place. Rest well Sir! Rest well!

“ Dad

This is your son Robert and not sure if you knew you were my hero, you taught me everything I know, you left us to soon , I wasn't ready for this. I'm trying to be strong for my momma she's hurting and you reared us to be strong men, I will never question God, if you weren't ready he wouldn't have called you home, you have fought a good fight and have finished your course, thank you for teaching me how to be a man and my work ethics I got from you, I'm a hard work and don't like to be late , you taught us to never start what your not gone finish thank you for the chastisement it made me who I am today , you yay us to work for what we want and never take no for an answer, I've watched you for over 60 years take care of momma and the house and you never missed a beat, what a great example you were , thank you for everything, I have no regrets about my upbringing because you left not one stone unturned taught us that we can be anything we want to be, we've seen you when you were mighty rock and we've seen God turn mighty rock into Bishop Graham and that lets me know God got all power in his hands. I know you probably shouting by now but if you get a minute stop by and let mommy know you alright and your still watching over all of us, so her soul can rest, until we meet again ,I love you dad.
