“ John was the epitome of a southern gentleman. A true legend in the USGS has passed. I had the privilege to work closely with John on a few occasions. As Leroy said, his stories were epic. I will miss him.

“ I moved to the Montgomery Office from Atlanta in 1986 and truly appreciated the welcoming reception that John gave me. He always was a gentleman and conducted himself in a professional and respectful manner. John will always be remembered by me for his humor and wit and his never-ending supply of "stories". He enjoyed life and demonstrated that with his treatment of his co-workers with his caring attitude for them and their families. Thank you John for being a part of my life.
