“ My thoughts and prayers for comfort and strength are with Martha, Jackie, Len and the rest of the family. Julius was a great cousin and friend to my Dad, Tommy Hollon. At my Dad's funeral over 15 years ago, Julius made a point to tell me how much he loved my Dad and how they were more like brothers than cousins. I know my Dad felt the same. My brothers and sisters remember how close they were too. I know they shared a love of horses and I know my Dad called him Rock. I know my Dad's favorite all time vehicle was a blue diesel chevy truck Julius picked out for him. He loved that truck and he was proud to drive it. I have memories of my Dad and Julius laughing, joking and always smiling around each other. They had many good times together and probably got in their fair share of trouble! I believe they greeted each other again with a brotherly hug and smile and started the good times again just where they left off. May all the good memories bring comfort and peace to his family.
